COLVILLE'S RECEPTION

It Was as Cool as Sir Evelyn Wood Knew How to Make It.

HE TURNS UP A BOGUS TELEGRAM.

Lieutenant Spragge's Call to Lindley Accounted For by the Fake Message—Some One Was Tampering With the Wires.

London, Dec. 31.—Since his arrival in London, Major General Sir Evelyn Wood Colville has received information tending to show that Lieutenant Colonel Spragge actually received a forged telegram, purporting to be signed by General Colville, dated Lindley, May 23, saying: "I am badly in want of mounted troops. Come here at once."

This telegram was sent off three days before General Colville reached Lindley and was the cause of Lieutenant Spragge hastening there. One of the principal charges against General Colville is that, after appealing to the yeomanry for help, he abandoned them to their fate. "I never heard of this telegram," said General Colville, "until now. But it explains the mystery of my alleged message to Colonel Spragge. It was known at the time that some one was tampering with the wires near Lindley in the interest of the Boers."

General Colville reported himself at the war office Monday. General Sir Evelyn Wood, the adjutant general, merely sent a subordinate to meet him.

Report From Kitchener.

London, Dec. 31.—General Kitchener, telegraphing from Pretoria, Dec. 30, says: The post at Helvetia was surprised at 2:30 a. m., the enemy first rushing a 4.7 gun. At dawn the officer commanding the post at Swartzkopjes sent out a patrol and shelled the enemy out of Helvetia, making them abandon the gun temporarily. The Boers, however, formed our prisoners around the gun and got away eventually. No ammunition belonging to the gun was captured. The casualties were four officers wounded and 11 men killed and 22 wounded. A column was sent out from Machadodorp, owing to bad roads it failed to arrive in time.

Demand For More Troops.

London, Dec. 31.—Commenting upon the Helvetia disaster, The Daily Mail calls upon the government to send out at least 50,000 additional mounted men.

More Failures.

London, Dec. 31.—Fears of further failures in connection with the collapse of the London and Globe Finance corporation, limited, were not realized up to 1 p. m. The whole tone of the stock exchange steadied in consequence, and Americans were marked up from one-half to 4 and the rapidly with which all offerings were taken up for New York had a good effect in steadying other departments. The London and Globe finance corporation sent a circular to its shareholders calling a meeting Jan. 9 for the purpose of adopting a resolution to wind up the company. The circular says the capital of the company is locked up in securities on which, at present, it is impossible to realize, and the corporation by reason of its liabilities is unable to carry on business. Later Thomas S. Egan, a jobber in the West Australian market, failed, but this had little effect. Subsequently still two more failures were announced on the stock exchange, those of G. W. Barber and Fitzgerald and company, both connected with the West Australian market.

Receiver For Loan Association.

Atlanta, Dec. 31.—The Interstate Building and Loan association, the last of the corporations of the kind in Atlanta, was placed in the hands of W. H. Scott as receiver on the application of J. William Flynn, who has $3,500 invested in the concern and A. R. Heywood, jr., who has $500. The petitioners allege that the scheme of the building and loan associations has practically failed and that while the assets indicate insolvency, there is no reasonable hope that the stock can be matured during a reasonable time. The bill asks that the assets be collected and distributed among the shareholders pro rata. The assets are given as over $100,000; liabilities $92,500.

Made Up the Deficit.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 31.—Charles D. Snapp, confidential clerk and cashier of Caldwell & Smith, investment brokers, who was in jail charged with a shortage in his accounts, was released. His brother, Howard Snapp, and George Debell of Joliet settled with the firm, transferring property in Chicago belonging to Howard Snapp, and property in Arkansas belonging to Charles D. Snapp, all valued at $21,800.

QUAY'S BATTLE ROYAL.

Opponents Working Hard to Keep Him Out of the Senate.

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 1.—Democrats of the house and anti-Quay Republicans held separate caucuses to discuss plans for fusion on the organization of the house. Should fusion be effected, it is probable that General William H. Koontz of Somerset, an anti-Quay Republican, will be the candidate for speaker. William T. Marshall of Allegheny is the unanimous choice of the stalwart Republicans. Insurance Commissioner Durham, a stalwart Republican leader, said the stalwarts would organize the senate and house and that Quay will be elected United States senator on the first ballot without the aid of a single Democrat.

Senator David Martin of Philadelphia, an anti-Quay Republican, and Democratic National Chairman Guiley of Pittsburgh, were just as positive in their statements that the fusionists would organize the house and prevent Mr. Quay's election. The anti-Quayites concede the election of Senator William P. Snyder, of Chester as president pro tem of the senate and of stalwart officers and employees of that body. Indications are that Mr. Guiley will be the choice of the Democrats for senator. It requires 127 votes to elect.

Raided by Red Men.

Tombstone, A. T., Dec. 31.—Reports from the northern parts of the states of Chihuahua and Sonora tell of frequent raids on ranches and settlements by Apache and Yaqui Indians. They have driven off many head of live stock which are believed to have been driven south. The outlaws are said to be led by a white man. The Yaquis are probably members of a party which has been warring with Mexican troops and the Apaches are from a part of a tribe which has been living in northern Mexico since they were driven out of Arizona years ago.

SWEEPING AVERMENT.

Congressman Lentz Attributes Defeat To Bribery and Fraud.

GIVES OFFICIAL NOTICE OF CONTEST

President McKinley Accused of Meddling in Congressional Campaign. Others High in Political Life Charged With Irregularities.

Columbus, O., Dec. 31.—Bribery, debauchery and corruption by persons high in official life are alleged by Congressman John J. Lentz in his contest against Emmett Tompkins, the Republican candidate, who at the November election received a plurality of eight votes according to the returns, out of a total of 51,392 votes cast in the Twelfth district, consisting of Franklin and Fairfield counties. Mr. Lentz has made public a lengthy statement in support of his official notice to contest, in which he alleges that certain students in various educational institutions and employees of state institutions located in this city were induced to remain here and vote for Tompkins; that illegal voters were imported and colonized in this city for the same purpose; and that Mr. Tompkins was the beneficiary of the "manifest errors in the count and return of votes."

It is further charged that the campaign pursued in behalf of Mr. Tompkins was part of a systematic plan of Republican leaders connected with the Republican administration at Washington; that a large corruption fund was procured to compass his defeat by bribery because of his severe criticisms of President McKinley's official acts; and in pursuance of said plan, Mr. Lentz avers that William J. Burns and John E. Murphy of the United States secret service, "by and with the consent of President McKinley and other Republican managers of the campaign, and at the request of W. B. Woodbury, secretary of the Franklin county Republican executive committee, came to Columbus and participated in the crime of bribing and debauching voters in the bad lands and other social cesspools of this city."

It is further alleged that E. J. Miller, surveyor of customs of the Columbus port, participated in and assisted said parties in the payment of bribes to voters. It is also charged that Cyrus Huling, Republican ex-prosecuting attorney of Franklin county, was given $4,000 for the purpose of corrupting and bribing Democratic voters of this district; that Harry B. Arnold and E. B. Dillon, chairman of the Republican county executive committee, offered bribes to certain Democrats; that more than 25 foremen of the different sections of laborers at work on construction of the plants of the Federal Gas and Fuel company and the Columbus London and Springfield Street Railway company were paid money for the purpose of bribing said foremen and employees; and that $4,500 was paid to John J. Joyce, Democratic ex-county clerk of Franklin county, and ex-secretary of Democratic county executive committee, "for the purpose of securing the votes and assistance of Democratic committeemen and voters as Mr. Joyce might be able to bribe," to bring about Lentz's defeat. Mr. Lentz also avers that President McKinley made a personal and individual canvass and solicitation of certain Democratic voters in Fairfield county in behalf of Mr. Tompkins. Mr. Lentz claims that "as said Cyrus Huling made the statement several days before the election that at least 3,000 Republicans in this district must have voted for Lentz, it is a fair deduction that about 2,300 Democratic voters must have been hired to remain away from the polls or induced by bribery to vote against me."

The contestant avers that he ran over 700 votes ahead of the Democratic national ticket in the respectable wards of the city, and that by the lavish use of money in the slum districts the vote of his opponent was abnormally increased.

Hockey Litigation Renewed.

Tampa, Fla., Dec. 31.—Suit was filed here by the Hockey heirs for possession of the old government reservation valued now at more than $300,000. This property has been fought for in all the courts in this state and the United States circuit court and has been twice passed upon by the secretary of the interior at Washington. The fight has covered a period of 20 years and was settled in favor of the persons now in possession. The Hockey heirs now enter a new suit. There are 20 parties to the suit, scattered through New York, Virginia and California. They claim the original grant was to their grandparents and they are the rightful heirs.

Mexican Met His Match.

Phoenix, A. T., Dec. 31.—Amadora Morales, a Mexican, ran amuck at Morrell. Deputy Constable Kepler attempted to arrest him. The Mexican drew a revolver and tried to shoot the officer, but the latter was too quick and killed Morales with his first shot.

CONFIRMED BY CONGER.

Cables State Department That China Accepts Peace Proposal.

Washington, Dec. 31.—The state department received a dispatch from Minister Conger at Peking, dated Dec. 30, announcing that the Chinese plenipotentiaries have notified the representatives of the powers that the emperor decrees the acceptance of their demands as a whole and Prince Ching requests further conference. They also desire that military excursions to the interior should cease. It is well known that this last request is in accordance with the views of the president.

In diplomatic quarters, the acceptance given by the Chinese envoys is regarded as a most ingenious stroke of diplomacy. It is said this is not an unconditional acceptance, although it is such a concurrence of the general principle of the note that the powers cannot well set it aside.

Minister Wu is back from his trip to Montclair, N. J., but is still without advice from Peking as to what has been done. The report of an edict from the emperor directing an acceptance has not reached the minister, so that he had no occasion to confer with the state department on that matter.

Chasing the Chinese.

Berlin, Dec. 31.—Count Von Waldersee reports to the war office under date of Peking, Dec. 9: The Chinese fled south were pursued by Irlost's squadron to So-Kien, southwest of Peking, where the Chinese scattered. Gruber's column seized great quantities of munitions, quick firing and Krupp guns, Maxim rifles, etc., at Si-Nan-Chen, east of Pao-Tin-Hsien, which had been abandoned by the fleeing Chinese.

Armistice Proclaimed.

London, Dec. 31.—A dispatch from Peking dated Dec. 30, says an armistice has been proclaimed.

Rugled In at Boston.

Boston, Dec. 31.—The opening of the twentieth century was welcomed and recognized officially in this city. In most of the churches, appropriate services and ringing of bells and chimes at midnight marked the departure of 1900 and the advent of 1901. The most notable feature of the general observance, outside of religious circles, was at the state house, conducted under the auspices of the Twentieth Century club. At 11:45 o'clock 100 singers and four trumpeters took places on the front balcony. A psalm was read by Rev. Edward Hale, D.D., hymns were sung and at the hour of 12, the trumpeters announced the new century, and chimes and church bells throughout the city rang out the old and welcomed the new.

New century at New York.

New York, Dec. 31.—In addition to church services at midnight and the various private watch meetings there was an official celebration at the city hall to welcome the new year and new century. The program included a large number of musical selections and an address by Randolph Guggenheimer, president of the municipal council. As the last minute of the old century passed, 40 bombs were exploded in city hall park and as the clock pointed to midnight there was an illumination in scarlet and emerald. This was followed by a variety of boomshells, producing novel effects and then a gigantic portrait of Mayor Van Wyck was shown in fire.

Rewards For Kidnapers.

Omaha, Dec. 31.—The city of Omaha has decided to take a hand in the Cudahy abduction case, and a special meeting of the city council was called for that purpose. Mayor Moore declares that, bullets or no bullets, he intends to offer a reward for the arrest of the Cudahy kidnapers. He has wired the governor urging him to offer a reward. The council is asked to offer $10,000 for any person who may bring about the conviction of the kidnapers. The county will also be asked to offer a reward. It is expected to swell the sum to $25,000.

Lansing, Mich., Dec. 31.—Articles of the Detroit United Street Railway company, capitalized at $12,500,000 were filed with the secretary of state together with franchise fee of $6,000. The new company will take over the franchise and property of the Detroit Citizens Street railway, Detroit, Fort Wayne and Belle Isle railway, Detroit Citizens Street railway and Detroit Suburban railway company. The incorporators are R. T. Wilson, M. O. Wilson, James M. Edwards of New York, Jere C. Hutchins and Albert E. Peters, Detroit; Henry A. Everett, Ralph A. Harmon of Cleveland.

WINTER IN THE WEST.

Blizzards Blow, Snow Clouds Snow And Mercury Goes Below.

MINERS SNOWBOUND ON MT. BLANC.

Cold Enough at Bander, Wyoming, To Make a Person Hope For a Hot Heaven—Not Any too Warm In Denver—Traffic Delayed.

Walsenburg, Colo., Dec. 31.—It has been storming at intervals in this section for several days, and the roads leading to the summit of Mount Blanc are impassable. Fears have been entertained for the safety of the 100 or more miners on the top of the mountain who had not yet laid in their winter's supply of provisions. People living at the base of the mountain say, however, that if they were in danger of scant food supply, some of them would have cut their way through before this and called upon the neighboring camps for help.

Below Zero.

Denver, Dec. 31.—Eighteen degrees below zero was the temperature recorded at the government weather station in this city and at Cheyenne, Wyo., Monday. The coldest place in the country is Bander, Wyo., where 28 below zero was reported. The snow fall has ceased and warmer weather is predicted for Rocky mountain region.

Stock Suffering.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Dec. 31.—A general snow storm has prevailed over the eastern and central sections of Wyoming. Along Powder river and Salt creek, the snow is very deep. Much difficulty in feeding stock is experienced although no serious damage is reported as yet.

Trains Behind Time.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 31.—The storm which began Sunday night continued until a late hour Monday. All trains east bound were from one to two hours late, principally on account of having to face the strong wind.

Iowa's First Snowfall.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 31.—Iowa had her first snow storm of the season Sunday night. Trains were delayed somewhat. The thermometer registered eight below zero Monday morning.

Theatrical Combline.

New York, Dec. 31.—An official statement of the objects of the new combination of traveling theatrical managers has just been made. The name of the organization will be the "Association of Traveling Managers." Papers of incorporation were executed and filed at Albany. Nearly 150 traveling attractions are already represented in the membership. Offices will be established at once and general and assistant managers will be appointed. One of the main objects of the association is to secure better terms from railroad companies. Another object is the establishment of a system of attorneys and bondsmen throughout the country. Unreliable actors will be tabooed. If violation of contract and gross misconduct on the part of an actor is proved, no member of the association will be permitted to give him further employment.

D'Essauer Owns Up.

New Orleans, Dec. 1.—George D'Essauer, who was arrested here last week under the name of Dr. Carle, appeared in court and admitted that he was in reality D'Essauer. He declared there was no charge pending against him in Chicago and that he was entitled to his freedom. He says he assumed the name of Carle because he did not desire to be bothered by reporters. D'Essauer was held to await further advice from Chicago. Chief Gaster received a dispatch from Chief of Police Kiple of Chicago saying "Hold George D'Essauer, will send officer and man to identify him. He is wanted here badly." D'Essauer was greatly surprised when shown the dispatch. He said he would not go back without a fight.

A NEGLECTED INSTITUTION.

Maysville has an institution that should be the pride of every citizen, but which, the BULLETIN regrets to say, has for years been sadly neglected. We refer to the Public Library on Sutton street. It has never received that consideration and encouragement from our municipal authorities which such an institution merits. Even in its present condition it is one of the most valuable institutions of the kind in the State; and yet how much better and more useful could it be made were the proper spirit manifested toward it by our people, and especially by those in authority.

The philanthropic spirit of a former citizen, the late James Wormald, gave this institution to Maysville. For the purpose of establishing an institute "uniting the advantages of a public library with those of a historical and scientific society," Mr. Wormald bequeathed the lot on Sutton street and also a sum of money, amounting we believe to $20,000. This sum, however, has not yet become available, and probably will not for many years yet, as the income goes to certain relatives of Mr. Wormald during their life. Inspired by the generosity of Mr. Wormald some public-spirited citizens contributed a sum sufficient to erect the present building shortly after Mr. Wormald's death, and since then the large and valuable collection of books have gradually been secured. The trustees of the "Maysville and Mason County Library, Historical and Scientific Association," in whose hands the management of the institution was placed, have of late years found themselves without funds to maintain the institution as such an institution should be maintained. They have no funds for the employment of a janitor, for keeping the building in repair and for compensating to some extent the faithful Librarian who has devoted so many years to the care of the books and the property. With no funds for these purposes it is not surprising that the institution has fallen into its present condition. The building is in need of repairs. A neat veranda would improve its appearance. The yard should be nicely sodded and enclosed, and neat walks put down. The interior should be overhauled and renovated and then a janitor should be employed to keep it in proper condition, and the Librarian should receive some compensation for the time he devotes to the care and oversight of the institution. Let the honorable Board of Council turn over a new leaf with the new year and new century and discharge a duty the city owes to this institution, by appropriating a fund sufficient for the purposes just named. The city is doubly obligated to do this now, because the Council during the last few years has placed within this institution the Greenwood Library and is yearly adding to this handsome and valuable collection.

Council should also bear in mind the fact that the library is a most important adjunct to our public schools. And one of the chief aims of the trustees is to make it more so with the increasing years.

A recent number of the "New York Saturday Review" has a strong and suggestive article upon this point—"Public Schools and Public Libraries"—urging the establishment of such relations between these two important factors in public education as would result in benefit to both and to the public at large. The problem which in New York, with its ten thousand teachers, has yet to be solved, has already found a practical solution in this little Kentucky town of ours. The Public Library is a recognized adjunct of the public schools as we have already stated. It is the official headquarters of the Board of Education; it is a school of research for the children who are taught; it is a school of instruction for those who teach. One of the best possible indications of its educational importance is the practical recognition of its value by teachers who wish to keep in line with the most advanced schools of modern thought. The ablest educator, nowadays, is not the man who thinks he has exhausted the sources of human knowledge; but the one who knows that, if he would keep the respect of the pupil that he teaches and of the public that he serves, his supplies of educational information must be fresh, wholesome, abundant and always on tap. No one has a keener appreciation of these facts than the capable and energetic teachers in the Maysville schools. In conclusion, how can we expect any more requests like those of the late Mr. Wormald and the late Mr. Greenwood if we fail to properly manifest our appreciation of their goodness and their generosity? Hitherto, our municipal authorities have shown little or no appreciation of these bequests, and if that is to continue our policy the city need never expect any more such gifts. Let not the sin of ingratitude be laid any longer at our doors. Let us show to the world that we appreciate these generous gifts, and will care for them properly and put them to the very best and noblest use possible.

THE "WHAT IS IT."

It is apparent that Greenup County has been done a grievous injury. There was no justification for the quarantine so unjustly and unnecessarily imposed upon it. It was a high handed outrage and the Kentucky State Board of Health owes it to an injured community to make public the persons and causes responsible for its remarkable action. Outside of the village across the river from Ironton there is no smallpox in Greenup County and that locality has been successfully quarantined against for weeks. The people of Greenup County should stay with this matter until the instigators of the outrage are identified and made to pay the penalty at the bar of public opinion—there being no legal remedy.

The foregoing paragraph is from the Portsmouth Blade. It requires no comment. The condition of affairs in Greenup naturally astonishes her neighbors across the river; but there is no novelty in the situation for the people of Kentucky. If the curb be not promptly applied, the medical trust in Kentucky will soon exhaust the revenues and "stamp out" the business of the State. Our readers will recall the recently published facts in regard to the Greenup "epidemic."

On Thursday, Dr. Eligs, Health Officer of Greenup County, and other local physicians, after careful investigation, issued a card stating that smallpox "did not exist" in the village of Russell. On the following day, Dr. J. N. McCormack, Secretary of the State Board of Health, arrived on the ground and promptly reported that it "did exist." Now you see it, and now you don't. Nevertheless it is there. It puts nobody to bed; it impairs nobody's appetite; it interrupts nobody's business; it disturbs nobody's sleep; it requires little or no treatment; it lasts but a few days; it leaves no traces of its presence; and carries no victims to the grave. This is the history of the "epidemic" at Russell. And, as at Russell, so everywhere.

Let us not be misunderstood. The authorities of this county have successfully fought epidemics for many years; and will always be found equal to any situation that may arise. If any eruptive disease which is contagious, should appear, every proper precaution will be taken by the people to prevent the spread of the disease. But they desire no meddlesome interference from abroad. They will isolate the infected; they will vaccinate the unprotected; they will pay their own expenses; and they will audit their own bills. If quarantine is required they will ask for it.

Mr. Charles Phister received a letter Saturday from a Chicago physician asking that he, "being one of the oldest citizens of Kentucky, make inquiries personally, or through Maysville papers, either the Eagle or other papers, regarding the descendants and ancestors of Thomas Downing and son, Timothy, of Washington." The writer's mother was Miss Hannah Carty, daughter of Charles and Nancy Carty, nee Brooks. He also inquired about Isaac Thomas, the Miner family, particularly Mrs. Araminta Miner. The writer's ancestress, Nancy Carty, was "one of the little girls who carried water to Kenton Station when it was surrounded by Indians."

We Try to Appreciate Your Trade.

By an honest effort to give you the best Clothing at a fair margin of profit. That's why we enjoy such a large share of your patronage. We feel, and know by experience, that the people of the community have brains and sense enough to know good Clothing when they see it, and generally buy from us, when we advertise Manhattan fancy Shirts for $1.25, while the other fellow wants $1.50. When we advertise a blue black, 24-oz., all wool, Clay worsted, fast color, finely tailored Suit for $10, you have a good idea when others show you a Clay Worsted Suit as thin as tissue paper. The trouble is not with the people; it's with the advertiser, who either can't advertise his goods properly, so people can have some idea as to their value, or he is too afraid of his competitor to name values on staple and well-known merchandise, that the people know, and especially if they are of standard quality. We are glad of any opportunity you may give us to show you our Clothing and tell you of its intrinsic value and put you a price that means so much to you.

Make an Advance.
If as the old year ends and the new begins there is one person who feels that no advance has been made, either something is wrong with that person or the shadows have not yet risen high enough above his path to permit even an indistinct glimpse of the goal toward which he is surely moving.—A. H. Bradford, D. D.

HOW IT SPREADS.
People Are Talking All Over Maysville. This Report Comes From East Fourth St.

How it spreads.
Can't keep a "good thing" down.
Ever notice how "good things" are imitated?
Better the article, more imitators.
Fortunately the people have a safeguard.
Praise can't be imitated. And true praise takes root and spreads.
Claim is one thing, proof another.
Claim is what the manufacturer says.
Proof is what the people say.
Maysville people say
Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys
Cure all kidney ills.
Hundreds of citizens testify to this.
Here is a case in point:
Mrs. Mary Kinler of 362 East Fourth street, says: "I sent a box of Doan's Kidney Pills obtained at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets, to a relative living in the country who was much troubled with kidney complaint. The result obtained from Doan's Kidney Pills shows that only terms of highest praise express the great curative properties of the medicine."
For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

WINE OF CARDUI

Cairo, Ky., Sept. 6, 1899.
I take pleasure in writing a few lines in praise of your wonderful medicine, Wine of Cardui. It is the best medicine I ever heard of. I am thirty-six years old and have been sick all my life. I had a dozen doctors, but none of them did me any good. I have taken one bottle of Wine of Cardui and will take another with Black-Draught. I have been married six years and have a baby five years old. I had womb and kidney trouble. My monthly period was so bad that sometimes it came twice a month. I was too sick to do work for a family of three. I was in bed when I got the bottle of Wine of Cardui. Now I am up and can do most of my work. When I was sick I could not sleep at night. I sleep well at night now. A friend of mine advised me to use Black-Draught with Wine of Cardui.

And all kindred complaints, due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It accomplishes its wonderful results first, by purifying the blood and counteracting the existing poisons; second, by toning up the kidneys, liver and stomach, and thus enabling them to dispel all foreign and unnatural secretions. Don't delay. At this time of the year everything is conducive to these distressing and treacherous diseases. At the first symptom take this famous medicine. You will find it almost miraculous in its action and positive in its good results.

When newspaper advertising arrived at the point where it was done intelligently and on a large scale, people naturally grew into the habit of looking to the newspaper for information as to what to buy and where to buy it, as well as for other kinds of information.
